June 4 - 5, 2007 - MaRS Collaboration Centre, Toronto, Ontario

Sponsorship & Partner Opportunities

Now in its fourth year, the Ontario Research and Education (R&E) Summit brings together leaders in education, science, research and information technology from universities, colleges, teaching hospitals, schools, government and business from across Ontario and abroad.

Our theme is "The Promise of Technology" with speakers and sessions exploring the exciting new world of cybertechnology that is transforming the way we teach, learn and conduct research.

This is your opportunity to connect with the research and education community at the Premier annual event dedicated exclusively to cyberinfrastructure and advancements in next-generation science and education technologies.

This Summit brings together ...

- educators
- researchers
- innovators
- scientists
- IT specialists
- government representatives
- private sector partners
- research administrators
- institutional leaders
- policy advisors
- graduate students

Presented in partnership with MaRS Discovery District

We invite you to review the partnership opportunities available for this event.
